

Blazing Path of Grace

An inspired poem:

A blazing trail of grace
Leading through My mountainous way
Along which many have chosen to camp and stay
Beholding the path and its travellers rather than My face

To behold My face is to cast all else aside
And simply embrace My way

Learning to abide
Letting all else drop
Laying all else aside
For the sake of My glory
And the writing of The Great Story

“Blessed (happy, fortunate, to be envied) is the man whose strength is in You, in whose heart are the highways to Zion.

Passing through the Valley of Weeping (Baca), they make it a place of springs; the early rain also fills [the pools] with blessings.

They go from strength to strength [increasing in victorious power]; each of them appears before God in Zion.”

Psalm 84:5-7 (AMPC)
