The Heart of the Matter

An inspired poem:

The heart of the matter is
To whom belongs the glory?
To whom belongs the honour?
Who is the Author of this world's story?

The Lord Almighty
The maker of heaven and earth
He alone must receive the glory
No other is of worth

> "And when the Israelites saw the mighty hand of the Lord displayed against the Egyptians, the people feared the Lord and put their trust in him and in Moses his servant."
