Unity, Purity and Glory

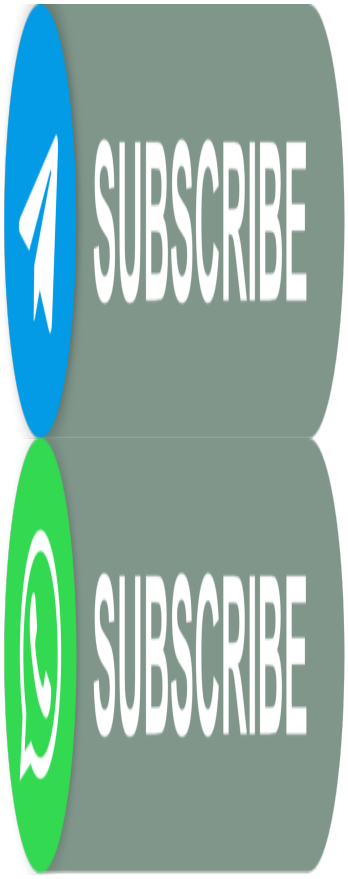

An inspired poem:

Relational purity precedes relational unity,
Which is the foundation for my manifest glory.
How can I build upon anything less?

My heavenly throne is founded on righteousness and justice.
So too must the earthly mirrors of my Kingdom be,
Rightly related to each other and me.

Transparent and pure as glass to reflect and refract.
Bound as one, reflecting the love of my Son.

> “That they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me.
>
> The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one,
>
> I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me.”
>
> John 17:21-23 (ESV)
