Soaring Along Wisdom’s Way

I saw a tree lined avenue from an eagle’s perspective. I saw its beak, which at first I mistook for an arrow tip.

An eagle’s eye view of all you have to do is the faith view
The only view which I see
The only view which I can release Myself into

You must choose to rise above the rest
Above the pettiness and the mess
And soar with Me along Wisdom’s Way
Till all you see is bright shining as the day

The downdraft of your wings will bring deliverance
It will stir up what is necessary for those below to see and know
It will clear the air, remove the debris
Stir up faith and release My glory

> “He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength.
>
> Even youths shall faint and be weary, and young men shall fall exhausted; but they who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.”
