It’s Time To Jump

Following a vision of a parachute jump, and addressed to those who have for years been making the long ascent up the mountain of the Lord and are now getting ready to be deployed to the valleys, the Lord said:

Jump, for the time has come. With Me at your side you can no longer hide. I have your back, so don’t look back – there’s no need. Ahead lies everything you need. Onwards and upwards for My Kingdom to come, and the glory of My Son.
