Over & Above

An inspired poem:

To go with the flow
Is to learn to let go
To move at My pace
To finish the race

It's to count all else loss
Compared to the cross
For over and above
Is the power of My love

> "Yes, everything else is worthless when compared with the infinite value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have discarded everything else, counting it all as garbage, so that I could gain Christ..."
