Neuron Network

An inspired poem:

A network of neurons
A cross-work of new ones
Transporting life flow around the body
Unclogged and unblocked
of the fatty deposits of dishonesty

definition: neurons are the communication network that makes movement, thoughts, emotions, and sensations possible.

> "But if we [really] are living and walking in the Light, as He [Himself] is in the Light, we have [true, unbroken] fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses (removes) us from all sin and guilt [keeps us cleansed from sin in all its forms and manifestations]."
