Holding Back The Flood

In a vision, I saw Jesus with His arms outstretched. I was with others, and we were looking at His face. He began walking backward. Behind Him was the onslaught of the enemy, but He held it back so that we could advance.

I AM holding back the flood. My grace is more than enough; My glory is more than good. As you move forward, I am pushing back. Just keep stepping—move forward as I have said.

Get ahead of Me and you move beyond My reach, so look where I AM. Keep behind Me, and I will push back while you move forward, hand in hand.
