A Single Flame

A vision:

I saw a small light. It could have been a single candle flame or a small oil lamp. There were several people around it and it was pitch black all around. I knew it belonged to one person. It was their light and they were holding it. Then I saw there were several other similar lights off in different directions.

– At first when I saw the flame and the size of it I thought, That's not going to do very much. But in darkness like this it shone for miles and people came, not because of its size, but because it was light.

> "Do all things without grumbling and faultfinding and complaining [against God] and questioning and doubting [among yourselves], that you may show yourselves to be blameless and guileless, innocent and uncontaminated, children of God without blemish (faultless, unrebukable) in the midst of a crooked and wicked generation [spiritually perverted and perverse], among whom you are seen as bright lights (stars or beacons shining out clearly) in the [dark] world, holding out [to it] and offering [to all men] the Word of Life…"
>
> Philippians 2:14-16 (AMPC)